I'm a big fan of bing.com/maps, but for this area, Google maps does a much better job with the roads, details, and satellite pictures

This area is very mountainous, between mile markers 120 and 125 on 81, there is an extreme uphill grade going southbound... and the back roads have many hairpin turns!

If you're going to Blacksburg and/or Virginia Tech, x118a and x118b bypass the services available on Roanoke Rd from exit 118c.
